Hiking at and around Enzklösterle:

14 tour suggestions at Enzklösterle and the surroundings can be found on the map “Wandern im Oberen Enztal” with a scale of 1: 35000, which you can get free of charge at the reception of Campingplatz Müllerwiese, as well as a flyer with suggestions from your hosts.

You need more tips?

The brochure “Wandererlebnis” offers further suggestions (available free of charge). For better orientation it is advisable to use the hiking map “Oberes Enztal” of the Black Forest Association (to buy in the campsite reception and the Tourist-Information Enzklösterle) in combination with this brochure.

Heidelbeerweg (blue berry walk):

The impressive theme trail with great viewpoints leads about 12.5 km around the blueberry village Enzklösterle and can be hiked very well in two stages. The campsite Müllerwiese is right in the middle of it all. Separate flyer available for free.

„Jockeles Flößerweg“:

At the spa park of Enzklösterle nearby the raft mockup starts the 23 km long „Jockeles” raftmans path. This round trip leads you along the mouth of river Rohnbach and Enz, where in former times huge fir trees were transported from the Black Forest to the Netherlands, and then further up to the raftmans lakes „Poppelsee“ and „Kaltenbachsee“. Separate flyer available for free.

Hike to the “Rußhütte” (Soot Cottage):

This cultural monument at Enzklösterle is a witness of an extinct forest industry. Until the end of the 19th century, here soot was still obtained from burning wood for the production of black colorant.

Open from March to October.

Kaltenbronn and Grünhütten-Tour:

The walk leads you from the campsite out into the Hirschtal-valley and then steeply uphill to Kaltenbronn. The tour continues through the Wildseemoor to the Grünhütte (open daily except Monday, Restaurant, Café. Tip: Taste the blueberry pancakes).

In summer, guided hikes to a hut nearby are offered weekly. At the hut smaller meals and drinks will be offered for free.

Cycling:

The surroundings of Enzklösterle offer ideal conditions for both, experienced and inexperienced cyclists. A leaflet with tour suggestions from your host at Campingplatz Müllerwiese is offered free of charge. Also available for free there is the bike map in scale 1: 75000 “Raderlebnis im Nördlichen Schwarzwald”, on which you will find numerous tour suggestions. The flyer of the Murg- / Enztal mountain bike arena is also available free of charge. The corresponding bike map with detailed descriptions is sold in the Tourist-Information of Enzklösterle.

Enztalradweg (Enzvalley bike path):

The “Enztalradweg” leads you over 115 km, following the course of the river Enz from Enzklösterle to Pforzheim and further on to Walheim at river Neckar. You can also ride your bike on the “Tälerrunde” (valleys round tour). For about 120 kilometers it connects sections of the Enzvalley bike path with the bike path along the river Nagold. Those who want to save their energy, can do so between Bad Wildbad and Pforzheim or between Pforzheim and Nagold by using the regional train.

Bathing Pleasure:

The Enz and the Hirsch Bach:

With clear mountain water the brooks on the Müllerwiese invite you to swim, but the water temperature is only 10 degree celsius.

Open air pools:

Within a radius of 15-20 km you will find the open air pools at Bad Wildbad-Calmbach, at Höfen, at Altensteig with a large slide, and the very idyllically situated bath at Reichental.

“Nagoldtalsperre”, water reservoir “Erzgrube”:

In the charming upper valley of river Nagold the 2 km long reservoir is located. It is ideal for swimming, surfing and boating.

Tip: The restaurant “Seeheiner” serves delicious homemade Flammkuchen (french pizza) and other specialities while you are sitting on the rotation terrace, which takes 20 minutes for one round.

At Enzklösterle you can also enjoy:

Black Forest Gateaux courses with coffee and gateaux-tasting,

Ham seminars with welcome drink, ham-tasting and certificate.

In the summer season every 14 days in exchange.

And what else?

Read the “Enztaljournal” and you will be informed of all events at Enzklösterle, Bad Wildbad and Höfen. Pick up the Enztaljournal for free at Campingplatz Müllerwiese or at the Tourist Information.
